MARTIN HUDÁK

Born in Prešov, Slovakia, Martin Hudák began his career behind the bar early in life, and discovered a passion for cocktails, coffee—and for combining the two! He eventually moved to London, where he honed his skills at the Savoy Hotel's iconic American Bar as senior bartender. He has repeatedly shaken, stirred, and innovated his way into champion titles at Tales of the Cocktail, World's 50 Best Bars, World Coffee in Good Spirits, and other international competitions, and has traveled to more than 50 countries, educating thousands of coffee and cocktail aficionados on the future of coffee cocktails. Hudák is currently based in Sydney, Australia, where he is CEO/Founder of the hospitality industry's Slovak Bar Show; a Global Coffee Ambassador for Mr. Black Spirits; founder of Spiritual Coffee, the Ginger Mania ginger beer microbrewery, and Sydney's newly opened Maybe Sammy cocktail bar. In 2019, Hudák partnered with Avalon Waterways, part of the Globus family of brands, and has crafted an outstanding collection of signature cocktails served exclusively throughout the Avalon fleet.

COCKTAILS

Enjoy a familiar favorite whose story is as rich as its flavors.

Martini Dry

€ 9.50

Few drinks are as indebted to Prohibition as the dry gin martini. During that period, gin bootlegging made the spirit easy to get—and the martini a popular choice.

Gordon's Gin 5cl (1.70 oz), Martini Dry 1cl (0.34 oz), Olive

Manhattan Perfect

€ 9.50

One of the oldest cocktails, the Manhattan was invented for a banquet at the posh Manhattan Club in the early 1870s. Afterward, the drink became all the rage, and it remains so today.

Canadian Club 4cl (1.36 oz), Martini Rosso 1cl (0.34 oz), Martini Dry 1cl (0.34 oz), Angostura

Old Fashioned

€ 9.50

The original cocktail, this drink was all the rage in the early 1800s. As it evolved beyond recognition, a backlash broke out and people clamored for “just an old fashioned cocktail.”

Jim Beam 4cl (1.36 oz), Angostura, Sugar

Cosmopolitan

€ 9.50

Some say the Cosmo dates back to the early 1900s. Others believe it simply willed itself into existence in the '70s as bartenders simultaneously invented it. Either way, it's so delicious.

Skyy Vodka 5cl (1.70 oz), Cointreau 2cl (0.68 oz), Lime Juice, Cranberry Juice

Margarita

€ 9.50

Tequila was rarely served outside Mexico before Prohibition sent cocktail-seekers south of the border. After Repeal, experimentation began, soon hooking the world on sweet, sour, and salty.

Tequila Silver 5cl (1.70 oz), Cointreau 2cl (0.68 oz), Lemon Juice

Sidecar

€ 9.50

Created at the end of WWI, a war rages even today over who invented the Sidecar. Both the French and the British take credit. Either way, drinkers find it a victory of taste.

Asbach Uralt Brandy 4cl (1.36 oz), Cointreau 2cl (0.68 oz), Lemon Juice

Whiskey Sour

€ 9.50

To combat scurvy, a British Vice Admiral served his ship's crew gin or brandy mixed with Lemon or lime Juice. When the Americans used whiskey instead, the Whiskey Sour was born!

Jack Daniels Bourbon 4cl (1.36 oz), Lemon Juice

Kir

€ 8.00

When the Nazis seized Burgundy's red wines during WWII, Felix Kir, a Catholic priest, combined white wine with blackcurrant liqueur to mimic the color of the reds. The popular result became an inspiring symbol of French resistance!

Creme de Cassis 1cl (0.34 oz), White Wine 10cl (3.38 oz)

CLASSIC

COCKTAILS

Enjoy a familiar favorite whose story is as rich as its flavors.

Kir Royale

€ 8.00

The popularity of Felix Kir's cocktail spread throughout France. Once the French upper class discovered it, they used champagne or sparkling wine instead of white wine, creating the Kir Royale!

Crème de Cassis 1cl (0.34 oz), Sparkling Wine 10cl (3.38 oz)

White Lady

€ 9.50

The White Lady was built on travel! In 1919, a London bartender created the crème de menthe cocktail, which he changed to gin in Paris in 1923. Back in London, a dash of egg whites were added, giving the White Lady its ultimate smooth and silky finish.

Gordon's Gin 2cl (0.68 oz), Triple Sec Curaçao 2cl (0.68 oz), Lemon Juice

Americano

€ 9.50

The first drink ordered by James Bond in Ian Fleming's first 007 spy novel, the Milano-Torino cocktail was introduced in Milan in the 1860s. It was later renamed because of its popularity among American tourists around the turn of the 20th century!

Campari 3cl (1.02 oz), Martini Rosso 3cl (1.02 oz)

Gin Fizz

€ 9.50

Fizz cocktail culture was in full bloom in early 20th-century America—and the Gin Fizz became legendary in New Orleans. Demand was so high, in fact, that bars would employ entire assembly lines of "shaker boys" to keep orders filled while preserving their stamina.

Gordon's Gin 4 cl (1.36 oz), Lemon Juice, Sugar beet Syrup, Club Soda

CLASSIC

COCKTAILS

Rusty Nail

€ 9.50

If ever a cocktail had an identity crisis, it's the Rusty Nail. Also known as a B.I.F., D&S, MiG-21, and Knucklehead, the combination of Drambuie and whiskey give it the distinctively smoky and sweet taste that enamored the Rat Pack in the 1960s.

Johnnie Walker Red Label 4 cl (1.36 oz), Drambuie 4 cl (1.36 oz)

Aperol Spritz

€ 7.60

Though Aperol itself didn't come into being until 1919, the idea of a spritz has been around for much longer. The name appears to trace back to the 1800s in when portions of the Veneto region of northern Italy were controlled by the Austro-Hungarian Empire.

House Sparkling Wine 6cl (2.04 oz), Aperol 4 cl (1.36 oz), Soda Water 2cl (0.68 oz)

Sea-Breeze

€ 9.50

The cocktail was born in the late 1920s, but the recipe was different from the one used today, as gin and grenadine were used in the original Sea Breeze. This was near the end of the Prohibition era.

Vodka 5cl (0.34 oz) Cranberry Juice 10cl (3.38 oz), Grapefruit Juice 5cl (0.34 oz)
